THEY ARE DESPERATE FELLOWS.

Facing certain defeat, as they are, avoiding the exposure of their records, as they have, and refusing to discuss the issues of last fall and the preceding fall, the Democratic candidates have become desperate fellows. Political death, followed by calamity and dire despair, have incited them to a state of madness and they are now grasping at every straw that floats upon the breeze, like the drowning man. Having fully made up their minds to evade a discussion of the principles they stood for one year ago, having issued an order eliminating "their cry of assassination," that poisoned the political atmosphere in the last campaign, having unanimously agreed to say nothing of those incendiary paintings exhibited in the Beckham procession, the cartoon which they said was the picture of Governor Taylor shooting Senator Goebel, the maddened, rebellious utterances made on the stump in Hartford, they have grown desperate in attempting to inject into the veins of true Republicans, the spirit of discontent and self-defiance.

Realizing, as they do, the certainty of death, if they attempt to defend anything they have ever stood for, they have gone forth a band of prowling sneaks, forging petitions under the guise of disaffected Republicans and asking Republicans to solicit certain gentlemen to announce as independent candidates, for the sole purpose of defeating the Republican nominees, and inflicting injury on the men who rendered every power they possessed in driving Kentucky's rightful Governor from the realm of the Commonwealth. Mr. Henry Leach is out in a strong letter denouncing it, and charging it to those in sheer desperation. His language is strong and well applied: "I believe that it originated from a Democratic source." Here is the secret of the story, well put. What authority have these men to enter the Republican party and assume to direct its destiny? Who has authorized these desperate fellows to put certain Republican names on a type-written document, breathe into existence through the instrumentality of a Democratic machine, in the hands of a Democratic candidate, and mail them out broadcast over the country? Indeed it is without authority, it has been done with one end in view, to arouse discussion in the Republican party, for they know success can come to them through no other channel and as a last and desperate venture they have decided to assume leadership for the opposing party.

Mr. Leach is not the only man whose name and honor have been insulted by the Democratic candidates and their management, but from appearance there are a number of other gentlemen. Among them is Mr. Thos. B. Benton, of Centertown, than whom there is no stronger or more loyal Republican in the country. This Democratic petition is accepted by Mr. Benton as a great insult to his honor and patriotism. So humiliated was he on learning that Democrats were issuing calls for him to make the race for Sheriff on an independent ticket under the guise of Republicanism, he deemed it his duty to brand it a "Democratic forgery." Mr. Benton handles the insult to his pride and honor, as does Mr. Leach, without gloves. Concluding a paragraph he says: "I therefore DENOUNCE IT AS A DEMOCRATIC FORGERY, GOTTEN UP FOR THE SOLE PURPOSE OF INJURING ME AND DEFEATING THE REPUBLICAN TICKET."

Here you have it straight from two most excellent gentlemen, whose honor is above reproach and whose standing in their community is unassailable. They denounce these petitions as "Democratic demagoguery." These documents are printed and mailed out at the expense of that large Democratic corruption fund, for a Republican would not dare do such a thing, charging Republican frauds without citing a single instance where fraud was committed. These Democratic dodgers have charged fraud in the Republican primary and have never been able to find a single man, who let his vote on account of fraud. These fellows who openly boasted of their ability to out steal, out count and out cheat; these same brazeners of Goebelism, revolutionary and anarchistic election laws—laws that remove every element of chance from the result of the election; these angelic, God-like purificationists, long-laced, sin-spotted political dispensationists are the would-be dictators of Ohio county Republicanism. Fellow citizens, do you want them? Read Messrs. Leach and Benton's letters and judge for yourselves.

POLITICAL COWARDICE.

Less than twelve months ago the Democratic candidates, now before the people, were waging a ruthless war against the people on strict political and "assassination" lines. They were bold in their defense of the contest and the overthrow of civil liberty; so intense were they infatuated with their seeming success, that when they planned a rally and ratification, they called a meeting of the "faithful" and sorely charged them that the cry of the day was not for a free and fair count and a loyal submission to the decree of the people, but it was "assassination." The chairman of the Democratic party issued his command that nothing should be said or done that would tend to allow men to reason, but instead, inflammatory charges were to be made, the passions and prejudices of the common people were to be lashed into insolence and raging hatred, the gods of reason were to be dethroned and driven from the kingdom, while the idolatrous revels in the magnificence of their infamy. These same gentlemen, who are insisting that their character and conduct are such that they are meritorious of the people's good will and special favor, did more to carry politics into the sanctuary and the home circle than the citizens of any other community in this Commonwealth; but in the stomp, the man who cast his vote for John W. Yerkes and civil liberty, was denounced as an assassin; through the columns of the press they talked of revolutionary methods of the Republican party, and denounced Kentucky's rightful Governor as a murderer and drove him from the State, and placed in the executive chair a man that had actually been defeated by a decisive majority; in private correspondence to the men in the ranks they urged a strict adherence to the party lines, advising that "a vote for Yerkes was an endorsement of all the lawlessness of last winter."

Having fought the campaign on lines of prejudice and "assassination," they lost out and were repudiated by a majority of 400 liberty-loving citizens. Realizing, as they most certainly do, that another campaign waged on "assassination" and the election of Governor Taylor, would result in total annihilation, the head of the ticket and the candidate for Clerk have laid aside their past conduct, wretched as it is, and are now pleading for the abolition of politics from the campaign, and issuing orders to the fieldmen "no politics in it, boys," like the cry of the midnight rogue.

It is with the Republicans to determine whether these men shall be judged by the "deeds done in the body"; they have it in their power to call a halt on the rabid and frenzied demon of cruel injustice; they can say to the man who carries the vote of the people in "his pocket," I will call you to strict account for those passion-stirring paintings and the "cut" that was flourished in the "bull's face" which made him bawl out: "Yes, there's your civil liberty." It is within the power of the Republicans and laboring men of this county to advise this man that he who votes against the laboring man shall not be promoted to office; it is also in the power of the Republicans to say to the head of the ticket, a man who made the race for office in '97 on the Populist ticket, advocated Populist doctrine in '98, '99 and 1900, and on the first of March, 1901, openly and boldly avows: "SINCE THE ADOPTION OF THE CHICAGO PLATFORM BY THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION IN 1896, AND THE RE-AFFIRMATION OF THIS PLATFORM BY THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN KENTUCKY, I HAVE BEEN AND AM NOW A DEMOCRAT. AS I UNDERSTAND, THE THINGS NECESSARY TO CONSTITUTE PARTY AFFILIATION ARE FIRST, ALLEGIANCE TO PARTY PLATFORM, AND SECOND, SUPPORT OF PARTY NOMINEES," shall not be given official favors.

We submit the case to the discretion of a wise and just public, believing that the citizens of the county will say to Jimmie Miller, "Jimmie, so odious is your conduct, so unstable are you in your declarations, so demagogue-like are your decorum and history, I will cast you aside for a man who regards consistency and truthfulness a virtue," to Mr. Smith, "Tommie, you have had enough from the public crib, and whenever you have shown your hand, it has invariably been against the laboring people, therefore, I will have none of you;" and to Mr. Butler, "Tom, before you can hope for recognition, you must explain the mystery that now hangs about your married fortune," while the hand writing on the wall for Messrs. Bennett and Wade, God-seek and Cox, reads after this fashion: "You are unfit for that which ye seek, hence I'll likewise cast you aside for the 'survivors of the fittest.'"

OBSERVER, Mr. Editor, will you please advise me, why the editor of the Herald refuses to argue politics with you, but instead only refers to you in an unkind and abusive manner, why does he not defend his party and the party's principles? In the first place, we answer, the Herald's editor has not the ability, nor the courage, nor the manhood to conduct a line of argument; his reference to us as the "mud-mill and calamity expounder and vice breeder," is due to his inability and the lack of dignity of a true gentleman. Secondly, no man can defend the Democratic party's conduct in State affairs and of course a mental prostitute could not.

The voter will take note that the "A. G. Benton," of letter scanda fame, talks of nothing but "top-line" these days. It is only the cry or "stop thief." "Benton" stood up last year and called all Republicans assassins, or its equivalent, endorsers of assassination. He defended the contest and the overthrow of civil liberty, and of course the poor fellow is duty bound to do something to evade his abominable course. Who blames this intellectual ghost for his conduct? It's quite the thing to do, therefore we congratulate you.

Mr. GODSEY you are, we perceive, averse to answering questions, however, we have another for you: Will you kindly advise the public where it was you said you would see J. C. Harder who was running for the marshaling of Fordville, before you would vote for him? Whoo-ee! wasn't it awfully hot?

We might suggest for the benefit of "A. G. Benton," alias Heber Matthews, that Mr. Alvin Bennett is a gentleman, therefore, he cannot afford to take note of what any "A. G. Benton" might say of him.

Just how well the fertilizer candidate for "Squire" will run in the Centertown district can better be told after November 5.

WHAT amount of corruption fund did you say had been massed to buy out the Republican party?

Who was it that said, "damned good lickins" would follow exposure of legislative records?

LEACH AND BENTON

Denounce the Petitions Which are Being Circulated over the County as Democratic Forgeries.

Strong Letters Against the Unprincipled Leaders of Democracy.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I wish to say to the Republicans of Ohio county, through the columns of your paper, that the petition which is being circulated in different parts of the county, calling on me and other defeated candidates to make an independent race, is fraudulent and originated without my sanction or solicitation. I feel that it places me in a false position before the people. I believe that it emanated from a Democratic source. Therefore I denounce it as being injurious to me and to the Republican party. I am in no way in sympathy with Democratic candidates or principles. Being a Republican I shall always be found fighting for Republicans and Republican principles. There is much depends on the result of the November election and every Republican should be found at his post of duty. HENRY LEACH. Centertown, Ky., July 25, 1901.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I understand that a petition is being circulated over the county, calling upon me to make an independent race for Sheriff. The petition, I understand, is being circulated by the campaign managers of the Democratic party emanating from Democratic headquarters. I am free to say it is not the work of a Republican. This petition not only places me in a false light before the people, but it is calculated to do my friends a great wrong. I therefore denounce it as the purpose of injuring me and defeating the Republican ticket. The man who placed my name on this document, did it without my knowledge or consent, for I do not approve of such Democratic demagoguery. I see no reason why any man who is a Republican should find fault with the present Republican ticket, for it is composed of the very best men in the county. They are all gentlemen of the highest type and should command the vote of every true Republican. Very respectfully, THOS. B. BENTON. Centertown, Ky., July 25, 1901.

Is your liver tired? Does it fail to do its duty? If so, don't neglect to call for help. A few doses of Herbin may save you a spell of sickness. Herbin is the only perfect liver medicine. It cures Chills and Fever. Price 50 cts. J. H. Williams, M.D.

HORSE BRANCH, KY.

July 24.—Some Goebelers, who are candidates for county offices, have the gall to say less than a year ago, "That a vote for John W. Yerkes would be to endorse all the lawlessness of last winter," now come before the people asking and pretending to be people that they will receive their votes. Let me say that there is no voter in Horse Branch precinct, who cast his vote for Mr. Yerkes, would be guilty of such a thing, and the Goebelers or Tom Campbellites think we have forgotten their slanderous talk of last winter and the picture of Gov. Taylor shooting Senator Goebel, just wait.

STARVED

Slow growth of hair comes from lack of hair food. The hair has no life. It is starved. It keeps coming out, gets thinner and thinner, bald spots appear, then actual baldness. The only good hair food you can buy is—

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

It feeds the roots, stops starvation, and the hair grows thick and long. It cures dandruff also. Keep a bottle of it on your dressing table. It always restores color to faded or gray hair. Mind, we say "always."

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists. "I have found your Hair Vigor to be the best remedy I have ever tried for the hair. My hair was falling out very fast, and I had used only one bottle, and my hair stopped falling out, and it is now real thick and long." R. J. MOORE, Centertown, Ky., July 25, 1901.

Write the Doctor. He will send you his book on The Hair and Scalp. Ask him any question you wish about your hair. Your Address. DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

'till November 5, when we will attack Goebelism and Tom Campbellism, along with the "chains and mortar" forever in Ohio county.

There is a candidate on the Democratic ticket, who is claiming the soldier votes, for the reason he says he was a soldier back in the sixties. The old veterans in this end of the county want to know where you were on February 14 and 15 '62 the day Mose Ragland, then but a mere boy of seventeen, faced the leaden hail and iron storm on the hard fought field of Fort Donelson. And where were you with your gun battling for a lost cause on April 6 and 7 '62 the day Mose Ragland, with blood spattered garments, charged midst a shower of shot and shell and faced the enemy for two days on the dark and bloody field of Shiloh. The people of this county know Mose Ragland as a soldier and know him as a citizen.

There is nothing in the gift of the people of Ohio county too good for him and his election is generally conceded by the Republicans of Ohio county and conceded in a host of Democrats. He only waits the coming of January 1, when he will again take the oath of office, and for Rogers, Cal Keown and the entire Republican ticket will do likewise. There will be no Goebel machine in Ohio county this fall to stall ballot boxes and throw out votes and override the will of the people. Each vote will be counted as cast and the Republicans will see that there is a clean ballot and a fair count. R. L. BOWEN.

Magisterial Conventions.

Beaver Dam, Ky., July 20, 1901. Pursuant to an order of the Republican Executive Committee of the Hartsville Magisterial District, a mass convention was held at Beaver Dam Ky., on July 20, 1901. R. C. Jarnagin was elected chairman and W. R. Hodges, Secretary. Mr. E. P. Taylor presented the name of George Baker for Justice of the Peace in Hartsville Magisterial District, No. 1. Mr. Wade moved that Mr. Baker be nominated by acclamation. The vote resulted in unanimous election of Mr. Baker, after which the convention was entertained by a very appropriate speech by the newly nominated candidate, in which he accepted the nomination and promised to do his best to secure his election.

Mr. W. P. Thomas presented the name of Jerome Allen for Constable of said Hartsville Magisterial District. The convention took similar action as to the nomination of a candidate for Magistrate and Mr. Allen was unanimously elected and responded with a short talk and assured the convention that he would continue to be Constable after the November election. O. motion the convention adjourned. R. C. JARNAGIN, Ch'm'n. W. R. HODGES, Sec'y.

FORDSVILLE DISTRICT

July 22.—Pursuant to call of the District Committee the Republicans of the Fordsville Magisterial District met in mass convention at Fordsville Saturday, July 20, 1901. Dist. Chairman, Chancellor called the convention to order and the large convention proceeded to his name by unanimously electing Mr. J. J. Telford Chairman and G. D. Royal, Secretary. On motion it was agreed to leave the manner of obtaining the sense of the convention, as to its choice for Magistrate and Constable to the various candidates for said offices, who held in consultation and unanimously agreed upon taking the vote by secret ballot, whereupon Messrs. S. P. Roby, W. S. Gaines and J. H. Roberts were appointed by the chairman to take the vote. Mr. S. C. Miller received a large majority of the votes for Magistrate over both his opponents and was declared the nominee. Mr. V. B. Bratcher was nominated by acclamation for Constable, he being the only candidate for that office.

Mr. Miller was called for and responded in a rousing speech of acceptance. In response to calls Mr. E. Mitchell in a few words moved to make the nomination of Miller unanimous, which was "highly" did. Mr. Travis Gentry the other defeated candidate, "joining in the chorus."

J. J. TELFORD, Ch'm'n. G. D. ROYAL, Sec'y.

ROCKPORT DISTRICT.

Pursuant to a call made by the chairman of the Rockport Magisterial District, a mass meeting was held at Harrells Hill, Saturday, July 20, 1901, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Magistrate and Constable. The meeting was called to order by Geo. M. Maddox and the purpose of the meeting briefly stated, proceeded to elect a chairman, which resulted in the election of Capt. A. B. Stanley. D. F. Gibbs was elected secretary.

Nominations being in order, Mr. Sam Bishop placed Mr. L. B. Loney before the convention a candidate for Magistrate. Mr. S. W. Robertson placed D. J. Wilcox in nomination for the same office. The vote was taken and resulted in the nomination of D. J. Wilcox. A motion was made by L. B. Loney to make Mr. Wilcox's nomination unanimous. A committee was appointed by the chair consisting of L. B. Loney to escort Mr. Wilcox to the stand, after which he made a good talk, accepting the honor conferred upon him.

Nominations being in order for Constable, Henry Robinson and Sam Hawes were placed in nomination; the vote being taken, Henry Robinson was duly nominated. There being no further business before the convention it adjourned in due form. A. B. STANLEY, Ch'm'n. D. F. GIBBS, Sec'y.

SOUTH FORDS DISTRICT.

The Republicans of the Third Magisterial District met at Harrells in mass convention on Saturday July 20, 1901, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of Magistrate and Constable. The convention was called to order by J. B. Wallace after which W. S. Dean was elected Chairman and J. C. Hodges, Secretary.

The chair then appointed a committee of three to determine the manner of voting. The committee reported the following manner: Each man must write the man's name he wishes to vote for on a slip of paper which must be deposited in the ballot box. The clerk must keep a record of each voter's name and in case the voter is unable to write his vote the clerk is required to write it. The chair then appointed B. L. Davis as Sheriff.

The chair then opened up the polls and proceeded with the election. The candidates voted for for Magistrate were J. M. Graham, B. P. Petty and J. A. Bolling. J. M. Graham received 85, B. P. Petty 23 and J. A. Bolling 7. T. W. Wright was nominated for Constable, after which the convention adjourned. W. S. DEAN, Ch'm'n. J. C. HODGES, Sec'y.

Poison Oak Poison Ivy BOTANICAL REPTILES

Their Sting Sets the Skin on Fire and Fills the Veins with a Violent, Lingering Poison

These plants seem to partake of the nature and character of the serpent; in winter time being comparatively harmless, but when warmed into life by spring and summer heat they become extremely venomous and spiteful, emitting a milky juice that burns and blisters like a fiery acid, producing quick inflammation and painful swelling. Some persons are so susceptible to these vegetable poisons that coming in their vicinity will produce almost as much discomfort and pain as handling them; their thin and sensitive skins seem to absorb from the surrounding atmosphere the acid juices emanating from these plants. There is seldom a picnic or family gathering in the woods but that some member of the party comes in contact with Poison Ivy, Oak or some other hurtful plant or weed, and through the open pores the poison is carried to the overheated blood. Poison Ivy is found clinging to tree trunks, fences or rocks, sometimes reaching great heights; the leaves are nearly square in shape, smooth and shiny and three on each stem; the flowers are of a greenish white color, and the berries pale green or white. The Oak is a small shrub, seldom more than three feet high, its size depending upon the nature of the soil, location, etc.; the leaves are long and pointed with saw-like edges and a downy appearance underneath. While the two plants are entirely unlike in appearance, the poisonous effects are very similar. After the swelling subsides the skin remains for a long time in a rough and inflamed condition, dotted here and there with bad looking ulcers and little festering sores. It is truly remarkable with what regularity and certainty the disease returns, and always on schedule time, appearing the same month, day and hour, almost that it did the year before. Don't be deceived should the signs of the poison vanish soon after the first attack—the acid juices have been taken through the open skin pores into the blood, and the most persistent and faithful use of external remedies can never dislodge them; and next season, and for years to come, you may expect to endure the same bodily tortures; the blood in the meantime becoming so saturated and charged with the poison that each succeeding attack leaves the body weaker and recovery more uncertain and slow, and thus the once simple malady ends disastrously.

For every poisonous plant, tree, shrub or flower, nature has wisely provided an antidote or cure. The roots and herbs of which S. S. S. is composed quickly, surely and permanently overcome and drive out of the blood and system the effects of Poison Ivy, Poison Oak, Virginia Creeper, Thunder Weed, Sassafras and vegetable poisons of every variety. S. S. S. will be found an invaluable and perfect antidote for poisons of this class. There is never any return of the aggravating symptoms after a course of S. S. S., as it destroys every vestige of the poison.

Don't abandon hope because of repeated failures. State your case to our doctors; we feel sure they can help you. Medical advice will cost you nothing and is strictly confidential. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases free. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

RETURNED EVERY SPRING FOR 16 YEARS.

Mrs. A. N. Bennett, of Tooele, Ga., whose case is similar to thousands of others who come in contact with these plants, says: "When eight years old my little brother and I were poisoned by handling poison oak, and it broke out on us every spring for sixteen years. Some one recommended S. S. S., which cured us completely, and we have seen no signs of the eruptions for several seasons."

Mr. Gillespie has been advised by Rev. Harned that Mrs. Wooley will be in the pulpit at the Cumberland Presbyterian church morning and evening of the first Sunday, prox. Mrs. Wooley will have a large audience of her friends.

Mrs. G. W. Fomes died Sunday morning of typhoid fever after a very brief illness. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her departure. Hartford, a citizen of our town in extending to the bereaved husband sincere condolence.

Mr. Barnett Hudson, Burdett died Tuesday evening of old age. His remains were buried at Mt. Carmel Wednesday. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. N. Jarman. He was a very old and highly respected citizen.

Mr. A. E. Pate was accidentally shot Wednesday morning while walking down the street toward the bridge by Guy Hines, a colored boy, who was shooting at a chicken. Only one shot struck him, entering in the left temple just over the eye. Dr. Ford probed for the shot, but was unable to locate it. It was a very slight wound which will not give any serious trouble.

Some prowling hawk went into the bed room of Uncle Tom Allen, near town, Tuesday night and stole $2.75 out of his pants pocket and sneaked off, covered by the gloom of night. He got one twenty dollar gold piece, one silver dollar and some small change. He was tracked in the direction of Hartford. Uncle Tom is quite eighty-five years of age and the man that would steal from such an aged gentleman must have little regard for the venerable citizen.

The old reliable C. R. Martin, the oldest and best jeweler in the Green River Country, has located at Hartford and can be found at the drug store of J. H. Williams. It is not necessary for us to say that he is a very superior artist in his line, as work done by him for many years here is the only recommendation that is needed. No better mechanic ever lived here. "He does not claim to do the impossible," but will give you the best work for the least money. He is prepared to do all kinds of Watch, Clock, Jewelry and spectacle repairing. He is alive to the welfare of our town and county and such men should be patronized. His family will, in a few days, join him and make their home here.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank the good people of Hartford for the kind assistance rendered me during the recent and fatal illness of my beloved wife, and also to repay the debt of gratitude in the future. Very respectfully,

G. W. TOMES.

Interest and Enthusiasm Mark

Each Day's Work.

The Ohio County Teachers' Institute convened Monday in Court Hall with a large number of the faithful present, to which have been added many more since the opening Monday morning.

Never before in the history of the county have there been so bright and progressive corps of teachers assembled in Institute work as have graced the county's seat this week. Despite the luridous shafts of Old Sol, the Institute has been doing excellent work.

The teachers are alert and ready to respond when duty calls, which is certainly a boon for the training.

Superintendent Rogers has worked faithfully during the past four years er when he meets them in the course of his school work. One thing that has marked the present Institute, is the amount of work done by the teachers. Many Institutes are bored with tiresome lectures from the instructors, but not so in the present case for the teachers are doing the debating and lecturing.

The teachers enrolled are as follows: Louana Ford, Blanton Coleman, Ora Ashby, Mattie Tichenor, Sophia Wallace, Florence Rowan, Albie Fielden, Mattie Robertson, Maggie Davidson, Annie Berryman, Rosy Berryman, Leota Patton, Sara Pottle, Mary Holmway, Daisy Godsey, Alice Baskett.

PROF. O. M. SHULTZ, INSTRUCTOR.

in raising the standard of those engaged in the pedagogic field and with the co-operation of two most excellent seats of learning, the Hartford College and the West Kentucky Seminary, his efforts have been crowned abundantly and the common expression regarding the present corps of teachers viz: That it is the best with which the county has ever been honored, is, in a great measure, due to the work of the Superintendent co-operating with these institutions of learning in an earnest effort to raise the standard of the public school teacher.

The fact that the Superintendent has chosen home talent to conduct the Institute, should encourage every teacher and call forth a more earnest effort, and arouse a greater desire to accomplish more acceptable results during the present year than formerly.

Prof. Shultz has labored earnestly and zealously to make the Institute interesting and pleasant for the teachers, in which work, he has exhibited marked ability as leader and instructor and his efforts and devotion to the cause, have met a hearty response from the teachers, and as a result, the Institute goes in interest and enthusiasm, producing results that should be considered a compliment to any educator, and should recommend Prof. Shultz to Superintendents desiring live and up-to-date instructors.

The discussion of subjects which confront every teacher in the school room have been conducted in a manner that will greatly benefit the teachers.

THE SUNNY SOUTH

Fifty Cents a Year. Less Than a Penny a Number. THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century, the Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors of the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of life and of people, anecdotes at home and abroad, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make up.

The two great features, "THE STREAM OF LIFE," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in process with full sympathy to cover former illustrations), and "The Sunday's Lovers," by MARIE HAMPTON, to begin April 25th, will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agent's commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you pay the full amount of $5.00 to us, entitles the sender to the Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is here at last. Order it today. The Sunny South in combination with the greatest of all Southern Weekly Newspapers—The Atlanta Weekly Constitution—both for only $1.25 a year. Remit that amount to the Sunny South, and get these two great papers—One Literary, the other News.

SISTER GAINS FREEDOM.

Noted Robbers Released From Prison Where They Had Spent Twenty-five Years.

St. Paul, July 25.—Cole and James Younger, former members of the Jesse James band of bank and train robbers and highwaymen, have been in the Stillwater Penitentiary for twenty-five years, were paroled recently by the Board of Pardons. They, with their brother, Bob, were sentenced to life imprisonment for the raid in 1876 on the First National Bank of Northfield, when Cashier Haywood was killed. They were captured after an exciting chase, in which two of the band were killed and the Younger boys were badly wounded. Jesse and Frank James escaped to Mexico. Robert Younger died in prison from consumption in 1889.

Rita Younger, sister of the outlaws who was described as a beautiful girl of seventeen at the time her brothers were convicted, has been working heroically for more than ten years to procure their freedom. Her devotion through all of the years to a cause that appeared hopeless, has won for her the sympathy of many influential persons, and to her labors, more than to those of any one else, is due the release of the convicts.

When Robert fell ill and it was taken that he must die unless he was taken to another climate, she worked to get and bravely to have him set free. Failing, she took up a place at his bedside, and for months, nursed him with the tenderest care. He died in her arms.

Since then the young woman has spent all of her time, when not actually engaged in seeing pardon boards and legislators, at the prison, where she is a great favorite. She was instrumental in having passed the law of parole, by which her brothers are now free men, on good behavior. The Youngers were model prisoners and after they had been in Stillwater thirteen years James was made postmaster of the prison, and the other were "trustees," with free run of the place.

Cure for Cholera Infantum—Never Known to Fail.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most all of the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times." For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

It is believed that enough planks can be reused from the Chicago and Kansas City platforms to make a good stout coffin for the Democratic jackass in 1904.—Moravian Falls (N. C.) Yellow Jacket.

STOP SMOKING

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys, poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the blood will themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

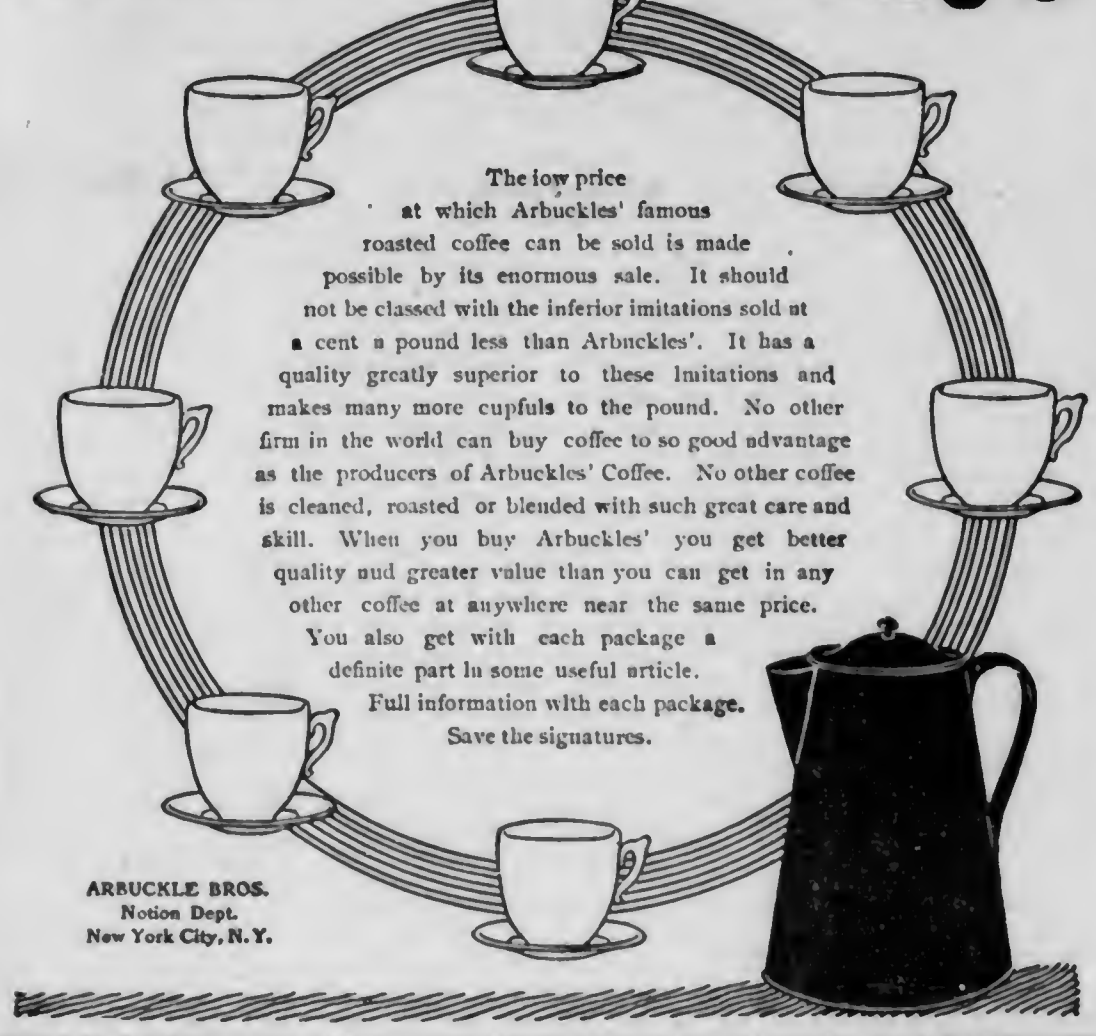

Billiousness

"I have used your valuable CASTORIA and find that it is perfect. Could not get rid of my billiousness, but after using your medicine, it is all gone. I feel better and my appetite is improved. I will never be without it again."—EDW. A. MARK, Albany, N. Y.
